FROM THE GENERAL MANAGER AND DIRECTOR OF GOLF ANDREA KNOX

Wow, it's October already! It has been such a hot summer that just the thought of Fall seems refreshing. If you have been away for the summer months or maybe just not playing due to the heat, be sure to check out all the events on our upcoming schedule and mark your calendar. We've got some great golf and social events lined up and look forward to your participation.

The Women's Member/Member that was set to kick off the month of October has been moved to November 11th and 12th! This two day Net Medal Play Tournament consists of three different formats of Best Ball, Scramble and Alternate Shot Pinehurst. If you would like to play but don't have a partner, let us know and we will be happy to help pair you up. Details and sign up information is available in the golf shop.

Monday, October 10th, I hope you are joining us for The Navy League Tournament. This 4 person Captain's Choice Scramble tournament is Chaired by our own Lee Figiuolo with proceeds providing recognition for area active duty military personnel, support for the Sea Cadet battalion and scholarships for Nease, St Augustine, Flagler Palm Coast and Matanzas High School Junior Reserve Officer Training. A good time, a great cause and someone may even win a New Hyundai Genesis for a Hole in One!

The Men's Invitational will be held October 20th - 23rd. This premiere event is a great way to introduce friends and potential members to Grand Haven Golf Club. The format will feature a traditional round robin within flights followed by the flight winners playing off for the overall Championship. There are some new updates this year that we are making to encourage more participation. The primary change is that partners will be allowed to play different tees. If you would like to play but don't have a guest to invite, we may be able to help you. Please stop by the golf shop for all the details. Entry deadline is October 14th.

Do you have an October Birthday? Your meal is our birthday gift to you at Birthday Bash so bring your friends and neighbors to help you celebrate! This month's Birthday Bash will be held on Tuesday, October 18th. Make your reservations early and join the party!

This month's Turkey Buffet has also been moved to Tuesday night., October 25th. This change allows us to offer three full nights of a la carte dining (Wednesday, Thursday and Friday) even during the weeks we offer these special events. Give it a try and let us know what you think.

Are you a Halloween enthusiast? Do you like to dance? We are planning a Monster Bash on the evening of Saturday, October 29th, complete with costume contest, dinner, dancing and Halloween fun. Get those creative juices flowing and start planning your costume now!

Please take your time going through this month's newsletter and have your calendar handy to start saving some important dates. We want to make sure you plan early to join us for Thanksgiving Dinner, Christmas, and New Year's Eve parties plus annual golf events like the Couples Invitational, Couples Championship, Club Championship and Women's Member Guest just to name a few.

A heart felt "welcome back" to many of our members that have been gone for the summer. Leave the un-packing for later and get out there and play some golf!

Palm Trees around the clubhouse after their recent annual trim!

"As we progress in to the cooler months, you will notice that more ropes/stakes will be added and the green 4X4 post will go back up. The purpose of the posts is to show the exit point of the fairway at a spot short of the green. ."

Did you know that with the exception of tournaments, events or necessary course maintenance; we are now open for golf all day on Mondays! Special rates for Monday guests of members will be available, so grab your friends and neighbors and come out and play!

TURF TALK

BY: TJ WEST

It is hard to believe that I am writing a newsletter for October! The first day of Fall has come and gone...2016 is flying by! Mid-October begins the "dry" season here in Florida. I cannot imagine that our weather could get any dryer! In the month of September we received 5.25" of rain. Most of that fell in two tropical systems. September was the second wettest month so far in 2016, behind 6" in June.

October kicks off our tournament season and the rounds of golf will increase substantially. However, as daylight and temperatures begin to decrease, the turf growth will as well. As we progress in to the cooler months, you will notice that more ropes/stakes will be added and the green 4X4 post will go back up. The purpose of the posts is to show the exit point of the fairway at a spot short of the green. Practices such as ball mark repair and filling divots come to the forefront as well. A bulk fertilizer application, high in Potassium, will be applied wall to wall on October 3rd. Like in the human body, Potassium strengthens the cell wall. It also aids in photosynthesis, holding color, respiration, etc. Potassium is an essential nutrient and we apply it on a regular basis. However, a higher rate is key to a stronger healthier plant heading into the Fall/Winter.

I have been told and have noticed that the wood lines are creeping in. Brazilian Pepper trees and vines have become a huge issue. In 2015, the weather was extremely warm during the months of October through December. We were still mowing grass on a regular schedule in to the second week of January. This caused us to focus on line of sight issues and not much else. Thinning out areas has already begun and will be a major focus going forward!

Bunkers...need I say more? As discussed in many prior newsletters, this Summer much time and effort has been spent on bunkers. Many different tactics have been used to help the playability and the appearance. The addition of sand to key bunkers throughout the course will begin soon! I have also been given confirmation that a new John Deere bunker machine has been ordered and we should be receiving it soon! We are progressing forward and I look forward to improving on non-turf areas!

As always, I can be reached by e-mail twest@grandhavengc.com.

HANDICAP COMMITTEE

BY: ROGER CONSOLLA & BILLY WOOD

First we would like to thank all of you that have been turning in your scorecards and posting your score. It keeps the overhead down from overpaid auditors. Approaching October and already you can feel the difference on the course in the Fall weather approaching. The extreme heat from the summer days are hopefully behind us and getting more of you out on the course.

Let's try and give something back to all the auditors on the club handicap committee, that are so dedicated to keeping all of our competitive rounds fair for all by turning in those cards and posting your scores. Whether it be your friendly group game or our club's league play, we all know that the best way to accomplish this is really within your own foursomes while playing on the course and making sure they are not abusing the system by not making putts they don't need and posting those low rounds accurately

Thank you for your cooperation and participation.
Roger & Billy

FROM THE GOLF SHOP BY: BILLY VANARSDALE

A special thanks to all the members who helped me travel and play in the North Florida PGA event last week. I am very surprised and disappointed in the way I played but it still didn't stop me from thoroughly enjoying the stay in Clearwater Beach and tournament at Belleair Country Club. I haven't played in any tournament like that in 3 years and the rust showed. Each day I struggled to get the round started, made 3 double bogeys each day and made bogeys in ways I normally don't but tournament pressure did get to me more than normal.

I got to spend each afternoon around the bay that goes out to the Gulf of Mexico just exploring and enjoying that amazing part of Florida. If you have never been to Clearwater Beach it is a spectacular area for water and nature lovers. Even the evening thunderstorms were beautiful and spectacular.

Thanksgiving Junior Clinic

If you have Grandchildren visiting for the Thanksgiving holidays we are planning a junior clinic that will be held Friday and Saturday, November 26th and 27th beginning at 1pm. Following Saturday's clinic we will have a skills challenge with lots of fun and prizes. Fee for the clinic is $10.00 per day. Attendance is not mandatory each day. Beginners and advanced juniors are welcome! Clubs will be available for juniors that do not have equipment.

On the Course

Please be mindful when you are removing and replacing the Pins when attending the cup. The pole can hit the area around the cup causing the hole to get worn on the side the grain is moving to. If you have a ball "remover" on your putter this can cause wear as well. If your club or the pin continually hit the side of the cup the holes are worn for the afternoon play causing the dreaded "lipouts" we all despise! Let's all do our best to play the game to remember that the cornerstone of the game is to respect the other players!

ROAD TRIP SUGGESTION OCTOBER 13TH—16TH SYMETRA TOUR AT

Since 2013 the LPGA Symetra tour has concluded their season at LPGA International where the top ten earners on the season ending money list will be awarded their LPGA tour cards for the following season. Watch some of the newest talent and help cheer them on to the finish.

GREAT GOLF SHOTS

- September 14th Gerry Johnson Eagle the par four 6th hole by holing out with a sand wedge for his second shot. Gerry's shot was witnessed by Bruce Smith and Bob Wolfe
- September 12th Chuck Culver holed a 150 yard third shot for an Eagle on the par five 18th hole using a 6 iron. Chuck's shot was witnessed by Tom Sweeney, Jerry Chiddester, and Tom Rodwick.
- Dave Jaworski shot 2 under par 70 on September 19th. Dave's round was witnessed by Bob Wolfe, Ted Kolva, and John Douglas. Great round Dave.
- Alice Lafond scored a hole in on the 107 yard 5th hole Tuesday September 27th using a 5 hybrid. Her ace was witnessed by Trish Mueller.

Website access has been a hot topic this month with our members beginning to arrive for the Fall. I am going to show you highlights of our main Web page and show you through pictures what can be accessed. Our Main site has many helpful tools that will allow members to stay connected. I update this site weekly to make sure that the information is as accurate as possible. Each member upon joining is given access to this site. Some information is available to the public but most of the vital information is for Members Only and requires a login and password. For this site, www.grandhavengc.com, the login information is simply your email address in entirety and your last name. Once you have logged in than you do have the option to change your password. If I have to reset passwords for any reason they will always default back to the original ones given at sign-up. If you ever have trouble please remember I am here to assist you. We want you to use this site.

GHMGA (GRAND HAVEN MEN'S GOLF ASSOCIATION)

We had a great day for our end of summer shootout on Tuesday, September 6. Each season of the year the Men's Golf Association has a shootout competition with the top ten league members who points from their involvement in the weekly games. As players earn first, second or third in weekly competitions they accrue points that add up to their potential involvement in the Shootout Competition. This summer the top ten Shootout competitors were: Mike O'Brien, Dave Jaworski, John Quackenbush, Roland Robichaud, Chuck Culver, Jack Hinsch, Pete Bianchi, Tom Sweeney, Dick Munsterman, and Steve Schile.

The event began on the back nine of the Grand Haven course with all ten competitors driving in order of placement on the 10th tee. As they hole out in the competition, players are eliminated accordingly until we get to the 18th hole where the top two competitors play to the finish as a new "King of the Mountain" is selected. Scores are determined based on low net adjustments with the highest score being the elimination point for each hole.

Everyone performed quite admirably and a special shout out to the top three golfers that put up a significant fight to the end, namely Mike O'Brien, Dave Jaworski, and Jack Hinsch. Hole 18 was what we call in the Shootout as the OK Corral hole where the last two competitors were dueling their way to completion, Dave Jaworski and Jack Hinsch. They completed this par 5 hole in grand style with astounding drives, fairway hits, strategized approach shots and challenging putts. But, in the end one person was left standing. Kudos to Jack "The Hammer" Hinsch for standing victorious on the finish line of the 18th hole.

Larry Geiser, presenting Jack Hinsch the trophy, Jim Golumb presenting the prize money. Looking on John Quackenbush winner of the spring shootout.

Top two competitors: Dave Jaworski and Jack Hinsch

Tom Sweeney, Dick Munsterman and Roland Robichaud, and great putting by John Quackenbush, Steve Schile, Pete Bianchi and Jack Hinsch. For all of us in attendance it was an exciting day of competitive play and glorious camaraderie.

Many thanks to all of those league members that participated in supporting the event, specifically, Larry Geiser, Art Canino, Jim Golomb, John Douglas, Jim McCutcheon, Joe Dresnok, Jan Marsh, Bill Wood, Lee Figliuolo, Earl Buchanan, Bob Borer and Bob Malone. Without their participation, this event would be difficult to have. Also, many thanks to Andrea Knox and Billy Van Ardsdale for their support and assistance, and the MGA Board for providing free beverages for all in attendance.

The next shootout for the Fall period will be January 6, 2017.

A reminder to new members to the club: we are always accepting applications to join our league. Application forms can be found in the pro shop or by contacting any MGA member for information. We are a wonderful group to play with and our camaraderie is the highlight of the experience. Come and be part of the MGA.

GHWGA (GRAND HAVEN WOMEN'S GOLF ASSOCIATION)

The GHWGA began our season with an Opening Day Scramble, luncheon and business meeting on Tuesday, September 20th. It was wonderful to have so many of our ladies back golfing again. We look forward to an exciting 2016-17 season of golf. We have 87 members as of this time, but we accept members throughout the year. You only need a 39 handicap to join the GHWGA.

In addition to our regular Tuesday morning golf games, we have two travel teams that play inter-club competition: SEAGALS and WPC (Women's Players Club). These ladies travel to area clubs and compete in match play competition. There is information about both groups on our website:

LGLGH (LADIES GOLF LEAGUE OF GRAND HAVEN)

Fall is here which means league play is back. Our opening day was September 15th and we had a great kick-off to the season. The theme was "School of Golf" and Loretta Consolla and her committee did a wonderful job in planning the day. We dined on Neiman Marcus chicken salad and we were "schooled" about some tips of the game. (One major rule being: have fun!) Our next league tournament will be "Ghost & Goblins" on October 27th.

Congratulations go to Alice Lafond for her Hole-in-One on the fifth hole, September 27th.

We welcome new members. If you are interested in joining, please contact me or inquire at the Pro-Shop.

KITCHEN CORNER

BY: CHEF JP ROBERTS

Hey Y'all its Chef with 21 Fall cocktails that will be the talk of your next party. Just as in cooking we infuse and layer flavors. You can do so in drink making. The list of drink selections I have chosen for you are going to keep you current and keep people talking about your party for weeks.

Enjoy the list, pick out your favorites, and let me know when the next event at your house is.

Cucumber-Apple Collins : Gin sour made with apple, cucumber, and savory artichoke bitters.

By the Fireside: spices nutmeg and cinnamon into this cocktail made with jammy Croft ten-year tawny port, lemon juice, and Café du Monde chicory coffee.

Making Love at Midnight: "fall piña colada." The base is flavorful Rhum Barbancourt, and the flavors veer toward herbal and comforting thanks to the inclusion of Krogstad aquavit and Suze.

Dill: anise-y dill, which is infused into Calle 23 blanco tequila paired with earthy matcha syrup, tapioca pearls, and soothing horchata. It's like a boozy bubble tea for leaf-peeping season.

Back to Capistrano: Concord grapes in this drink made with Peruvian pisco, Bols Genever, cinnamon syrup, savory sorghum syrup, and molasses-like demerara syrup.

Fall Line: cucumber-and-lemon-basil-infused vodka, easygoing manzanilla sherry, yuzu, lime, and spicy ginger beer for a kick.

Quartz Mountain: For this one, barrel-aged Old Tom gin is mixed with Foro Amaro, bonded apple brandy, and dry vermouth, and given a heavy dose of fall via star anise and BT Parsons's spiced cranberry bitters.

Baijiu Bijou: the clear Chinese spirit baijiu with potent green Chartreuse and sweet vermouth, then garnishing the drink with a lemon peel and cherry.

Tingling Negroni: There's gin, of course, but the Campari is replaced by Aperol and Cynar, the vermouth by pine-cone liqueur, and the "tingling oil" made with numbing Sichuan peppercorns.

Chock Full O'Nuts: Served in a coffee carafe with a pair of mugs, it's a combination of Old Overholt and Wild Turkey 101 ryes, Contratto Bianco vermouth, and apple and walnut.

The Testimonial: JM BLanc and El Dorado rums, then mixing the spirits with Rothman & Winter Apricot Liqueur and lemon juice in a coupe washed with Aberlour A'Bunadh single-malt Scotch.

Ricky's Charm: cognac with fruity applejack, relatively gentle Amaro Montenegro, apricot liqueur, and fragrant allspice bitters.

Santa Maria: Barr Hill gin, rose vermouth (housemade, of course), Buil y Gine orange vermouth, and Eve's Cidery Bitter Aperitif Cider, essentially vermouth made from cider.

Day After Amaro: mild Montenegro with bittersweet Cynar, honey syrup, bourbon, and lemon-ginger bitters.

Like a Bosc: citrusy Dorothy Parker gin, bitter Campari, and sweet, fruity pear cider for a classic seasonal touch.

Train's a Comin': Dolin Blanc vermouth, lemon juice, Creme Yvette, and cognac. The glass is rinsed in absinthe, too, for a hint of licorice.

Casual Magic: Old Forester bourbon is paired with Pierre Ferrand cognac, pineapple syrup for fruity sweetness, and bitters.

Exit Strategy: Powers Gold Irish whiskey, sweet and raisiny Pedro Ximénez sherry, La Quintinye vermouth rouge, jammy fig, lemon, and celery.

Autumn's Edge: Ford's gin, Dolin Génépy, apple juice, lemon juice, ginger, and dandelion burdock bitters.

Persimmon-Cognac Cobbler: Cognac is the base of this drink made with spicy cinnamon syrup, vanilla extract, persimmon purée, and maple syrup.

J. Pina: High West Campfire (a blend of rye whiskey, Scotch, and bourbon) with Amargo-Vallet, sherry, Angostura bitters, and a piña "tea" syrup made by infusing simple syrup with pineapple.

FUN GOLF FACTS

Getting A Hole-In-One

Each year, approximately 490 million rounds of golf are played around the world. Out of those millions of rounds, how many holes-in-one happen? The answer is 150,000. Those chances are 12,500-to-one for the amateur golfer — but for the pro, they're about 5 times better, or 2,500-to-one. The hole-in-one, or "ace," is like the home run of golf — this rare event is the ultimate symbol of mastery in a sport characterized by careful skill development.

Defying the Odds

Only a few athletes have defied these odds and delivered the hole-in-one, sometimes under especially impressive circumstances. Mancil Davis, for instance, holds the record for most holes-in-one, having hit 51 of them in his career. Tiger Woods made his first hole-in-one at age six. Kassandra Komma beat odds of 64 million-to-one by hitting two holes-in-one in the course of nine holes.

Although not known for his holes-in-one, Richard Lewis has set his own records in the sport by playing 11,000 holes of golf over the course of 2010, the most ever played in a year. Each round was played at the Four Seasons Resort and Club in Irving, Texas. (Brand loyalty, or could they not get him to leave?)

Although many people have gotten holes-in-one, not many can do so on a course intended to be completed in five hits. The Condor is another hole-in-one-related feat, achieved by hitting an ace on a par-five, or a course where a hole is expected in no less than five hits. This is a rare occurrence indeed, only having been made and verified four times in golf history.
