

Treviso Bay

Dining & Facilities Attire & Courtesy Guidelines

Living in a country club community requires members to adhere to a minimum set of standards for dress, decorum and courteous behavior. These requirements apply to all Treviso Bay members, their families, guests and tenants. They will be enforced at all times, and everyone's cooperation and support are appreciated. Failure to comply with stated guidelines may result in denial of service.

Clubhouse Grille Room Dining (applies to age 13 and up)

Golf and tennis attire are permitted; however, no gym wear, spandex, swimwear, or swimwear cover-ups are permitted. Gentlemen are required to remove head gear when inside. Clean shirts with sleeves may be worn provided there is no offensive language/symbols on them and that they are not torn or ripped. Tank tops are permitted for ladies only, however no bare midriffs or improper exposures. Denim is allowed, but only when it is deemed comparable to other required attire and provided it is not frayed, tattered or torn. Shorts, skorts, skirts, and dresses, need to be an appropriate length with no improper or offensive exposures. Short shorts, gym shorts and cargo pants/shorts are not permitted.

Shoes are required; beach/shower flip-flops are not permitted. Denim or Jeans are not permitted in the Grand Dining Room unless specified by event. After 5:00 PM Tee shirts are not permitted in the Clubhouse.

Note: Grand Dining Room attire is dependent upon the event. Communications for events held in the Grand Dining Room will include the appropriate attire for the affair.

Villa Rilassare Pool Area and La Piscina Bar & Grille

Seated and Bar Service Areas: Ladies must have a cover-up that conceals their bathing suit, men are required to wear shirts, children's diapers need to be covered. Thong swimwear is not permitted in pool or grille area.

Spa

Dry attire, shirt, or cover-up and shoes are required

Fitness Center

Fitness area requires athletic closed toe and heel non-marking athletic shoes, unaltered shirts that cover the entire chest, stomach and back. No jeans, cargo shorts, pants with belts or zippers. No clothing with profanity or offensive language is permitted.

All Offices, Lobbies, Library and Computer Room

Casual attire is required

Common Grounds

While within the common ground areas men are required to wear shirts.

Please check flyers and website for dress code associated with special events as some events may require formal wear.

Smoking and Vaping are allowed only in designated smoking areas.

Phone voice conversations are not permitted in dining areas.

Interpretation of guest compliance is at the discretion of the on-duty manager.

Thank You for your courtesy

TREVISO BAY

DINING AND FACILITIES ATTIRE POLICY AND COURTESY GUIDELINES

Living in a country club community requires members to adhere to a minimum set of standards for dress, decorum and courteous behavior. These requirements for "Dining and Facilities Attire and Courtesy Guidelines" apply to all Treviso Bay members, their families, guests and tenants. They will be enforced at all times, and everyone's cooperation and support are appreciated. Failure to comply with stated guidelines may result in denial of service.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Members and tenants must abide by our dress code policy and are responsible for ensuring their guests are appropriately attired in accord with the policy. The department manager on duty will be responsible for ensuring compliance with policies and guidelines and has the authority to refuse service.
- Interpretation of guest compliance is at the discretion of the manager on duty.
- Personal cell phones must be turned off or be in silent/vibrate mode while in the Clubhouse dining areas and while in the Villa Rilassare complex to include pool deck, fitness center, spa, and dining/bar areas. Voice conversations are not permitted in any of these Clubhouse or Villa Rilassare locations.
- No clothing with profanity or offensive language/design is permitted anywhere on the Clubhouse grounds or the Villa Rilassare grounds.
- Smoking and Vaping are allowed only in designated areas.
- Please check flyers and website for dress code for special events. Some events may require formal wear.

CLUBHOUSE OVERVIEW: Dress code for the Grille Room is sportswear, casual, and smart casual. Dress code for the Main/Grande Dining Room is casual, smart casual, or formal, depending upon the event. All event communications will include the appropriate attire for the affair.

Clubhouse Dining: Grille Room Lunch Service (Applies to age 13 and above.)

- Active attire: Golf and tennis attire are permitted; however, no gym wear, spandex, swimwear, or swimwear cover-ups are permitted.
- Head Gear: Gentlemen are required to remove head gear when inside.
- Tee Shirts: Clean shirts with sleeves may be worn provided there is no offensive language/symbols printed or sown on them and that they are not torn or ripped.
- Tank Tops: Tank tops are permitted for ladies only, however no bare midriffs or improper exposures.
- Denim: Denim is allowed, but only when it is deemed comparable to other required attire and provided it is not frayed, tattered or torn.
- Shorts/Skorts, Skirts, and Dresses: Shorts, skorts, skirts, and dresses, need to be an appropriate length with no improper or offensive exposures. Short shorts, gym shorts and cargo pants/shorts are not permitted.
- Shoes: Shoes are required; beach/shower flip-flops are not permitted.

Clubhouse Dining Grille Room: after 5PM (Applies to ages 13 and above.)

- Active Attire: Golf and tennis attire are permitted; however, no gym wear, spandex, swimwear or swimwear cover-ups are permitted.
- Head Gear: Gentlemen are required to remove head gear when inside.
- Tee Shirts: Tee shirts are not permitted.
- Tank Tops: Tank tops are permitted for ladies only, however no bare midriffs or improper exposures.
- Denim: Denim is allowed, but only when it is deemed comparable to other required attire and provided it is not frayed, tattered or torn.
- Shorts/Skorts, Skirts, and Dresses: Shorts, skorts, skirts, and dresses, need to be an appropriate length with no improper or offensive exposures. Short shorts, gym shorts and cargo pants/shorts are not permitted.
- Shoes: Shoes are required; beach/shower flip-flops are not permitted.

Clubhouse Main/Grande Dining Room: Evening after 5 PM

- Casual or smart casual attire
- Head Gear: Gentlemen must remove all head gear, and ladies must remove all sports head gear.
- Tee shirts: not permitted.

- Tank tops: Tank tops are permitted for ladies only, however no bare midriffs or improper exposures.
- Swimwear: not permitted.
- Denim: Not permitted
- Shorts/Skorts, Skirts, and Dresses: Need to be appropriate length. No short shorts/skorts, gym shorts, cargo pants/shorts permitted.
- Shoes: Required. No beach/shower flip-flops permitted.

Note: Grand Dining Room attire is dependent upon the event. Communications for events held in the Grand Dining Room will include the appropriate attire for the affair.

Facilities

Villa Rialssare Pool Area and La Piscina Bar & Grille

Seated and Bar Service Areas: Ladies must have a cover-up that conceals their bathing suit; men are required to wear shirts; children's diapers need to be covered. Thong swimwear is not permitted in the pool or the grille area.

Spa

Dry attire, shirt, or cover-up and shoes are required.

Fitness Center

Fitness area requires closed toe and heel, non-marking athletic shoes. Unaltered shirts that cover the entire chest, stomach and back are required. No jeans/denim, cargo shorts, pants with belts or zippers are permitted.

Common Grounds

While within the common ground areas men are required to wear shirts.

All Offices, Lobbies, Library, and Computer Room

Casual attire is required.