Family Privileges at The Glen Club

The Family Privileges program is included in the benefits offered to all Designated Users. The Family Privileges program provides a number of unique benefits as the Family Member's accompanied by the Designated User receive preferred greens fees and accompanied use of the range.

On the Golf Course

- Family Members, at prescribed times, may play the course for the applicable $40 Family Rate as the accompanied guest of the Designated User:
- All day Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday
- Before 11:00 a.m. and after 2:00 p.m. Thursday
- Before 9:00 a.m. and after 3:00 p.m. on Fridays
- After 11:00 a.m. on Saturdays and Sundays
- After 4:00 p.m. each week day, 2:00 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, family golf and Family Member's cart fee is complimentary

On the Practice Range

Family Members may utilize the entire practice facility at no charge when accompanied by the Designated User:

- Includes main and Member ranges, two short game areas and the main putting green
- Children under 10 are asked to remain on main range

Additional Information

- A 'Family Member' is considered to be the legal spouse and children (under 21 as of January 1 of the current year) of the Designated User
- The prevailing guest rate will be applied for play in the non-applicable weekday and weekend day rates
- Unaccompanied guest play is not included and is at prevailing guest rates
