

Old West. New Setting.

Course Designer

The world-renowned architect Tom Fazio and his staff of talented designers have been recognized for creating award-winning golf courses throughout the United States. Recognized for multiple awards, Tom Fazio created this course to highlight natural sand dunes, and native flora and fauna.

Length of Course and Course Description

This Par 72 premium daily fee golf course was designed at 7,307 yards. Butterfield Trail Golf Club features over 55 feet of elevation changes and avails itself to drama and relief with vertical transitions, making each and every hole a "signature hole." Offering Dominant Plus Bent grass greens, Butterfield Trail provides an unmatched golfing experience.

Golf Facilities

Butterfield Trail Golf Club offers the only state-of-the-art public facility in El Paso and features all the necessities for improving your golf game. Perfect for warming up prior to a round, or for leisurely practice. Come experience our driving range, putting green and short game area. Online tee-time reservations are available at www.butterfieldtrailgolf.com.

Butterfield Trail Practice Facility

The Butterfield Trail practice facility features:
All grass surface driving range • Short game area for chipping and pitching practice
Large putting green • Private lesson area on the opposite side for individuals or group clinics

Golf Lessons

Individual and/or group lessons are available with one of our professionally trained PGA staff members. To schedule a lesson package please inquire with the Butterfield Trail Golf Shop.

On Site Restaurant

Come and enjoy Salida del Sol at Butterfield Trail Golf Club, which features a full-service restaurant and bar in a comfortable and friendly atmosphere.

Catering/Banquet Events

Butterfield Trail Golf Club is the perfect location in El Paso, Texas to host your next corporate or charity event, dinner party, quinceñera, holiday party, rehearsal dinner or wedding. Our spacious 8,800 square foot clubhouse features indoor and outdoor patio seating which can accommodate groups of many sizes.

Our inviting clubhouse is surrounded by beautiful views of our pristine emerald green golf course, perfect for memorable photo opportunities.

