Another Successful Ladies Invitational

by Melissa Linville

K. McNulty, G. Johnson, C. Gregor, K. Larrabee & E. Maki

The 2025 Sudden Valley Ladies Invitational was a great success this year! Thanks to our many sponsors, we awarded $4,590 in event and field prizes. A huge thanks to all our volunteers, and of course the Pro Shop. We could not have done it without you!

The Friday putting contest sponsored by Terry Stach from State Farm, and the raffle during the awards luncheon on Saturday raised over $1,300 that was donated to the D.I.S.H. Foundation, founded by former SV Member Suzanne Taylor. D.I.S.H. stands for: Dignity • Independence • Sense of Purpose • Hope.

Their Mission: To employ persons with intellectual & developmental disabilities (IDD).

Their Vision: Provide an opportunity for employees to have a stable and fulfilling job that not only teaches the skills they can use in the workforce, but provide dignity, independence, a sense of purpose, and hope (D.I.S.H.).

They came out to help with the Putting Contest, and Suzanne and her son Kaden came to speak at our Awards Luncheon and she spoke very eloquently about their mission. Their foundation owns a restaurant named Our Kitchen, down at the Portal Container Village. They train people with IDD to work in a real restaurant setting, how to make food, take orders, take money, serve, cook, clean - everything that will help them get a job in the service industry. It's a wonderful restaurant and a great cause.

If people would like to donate, they can go to www.dishfoundation.net and click on the Donate button.

Thank you to the following individuals and organizations for donating to such a wonderful cause: Silver Reef Casino Resort, Lombardi's / Hook & Cleaver, Skinny Dippers Pet Salon, Tino's Restaurant, Laura Haggard, Kathy McNulty, Elaine Maki, Tricia Callahan, Barb Reece, Nancy Berg, Skylark's Café, Samantha Buckley – Hugessen, Fairhaven Runners & Walkers, Mary Bradford, Kerri Larrabee, Terry Stach at State Farm, Black Cat, BevMo. Please turn to page 7 for a list of Hole Sponsors.

I would also like to personally thank everyone who helped with the preparation before and during the tournament. Kerri Larrabee for printing all the sponsor signs and donor lists, Laura Haggard for organizing the cocktail party with help from Kristin Fuchs, Tricia Callahan, Elaine Maki, Bonnie Frank, and Maureen Christman, Elaine Maki for coordinating breakfast each day, and a special thank you to my husband Michael Linville for taking photos of all players, assembling the raffle items, and putting the finishing touches on the awards banquet setup.

The complete tournament results can be found on the Sudden Valley Golf website. Congratulations to Abbi Pagnossin and Melissa Linville for overall low gross, and to Arlene Johnston and Connie Serediuk for overall low net. The Friday Horserace was a wonderful time, and congratulations to Holly Hilton and Annette Bonnicksen for winning first place.

Course Beautification

By Fuzzy Fuchs

We are beginning restoration of some hole signs (these are at the tee box marking the hole number and a painted graphic of the layout and yardages). Many are in need of paint and repairs. They are several years old now, are cedar and require attention every few years or so to look nice. Reconditioning work will begin on Tom Frank's starter shed as well.

August is also fundraising month for course beautification. These projects' supplies are paid for out of fundraised dollars and we need your help to keep them going. We will have a betting board in the pro shop where you can buy squares to win prizes. Let's fill up those squares! Or you can donate directly by leaving a check in the pro shop made out to 'Sudden Valley Golf Club'. If you wish to earmark your donation to the starter shed, please indicate so.

The course is in fabulous shape and getting the most play of the season so let's keep those sand bottles flowing to help deter a divot infestation. Cheers to more birdies!

The SVGC Board appreciates your support. We hope to continue to bring many more fun events throughout the year.
