REBECKA joins Jessica Reese Quayle to make Oakmont the best place in Sonoma County for golf instruction. With similar training and backgrounds, these two instructors blend together make a cohesive team.

Rebecka's mission is to help golfers increase their enjoyment of golf by improving swing performance, on course strategies and mastering the mind within. She is a graduate of the San Jose Women's Golf Program where she played on three NCAA Championship teams and was a three-time Academic All-American. Growing up in Sweden, she was a member of the Swedish National Team for five years. After graduating from SJSU, Rebecka played professionally on the Futures Tour for three years. She has been a member of the LPGA Teaching & Club Pro Division since 2004 and is a Class A LPGA Teaching Professional. Rebecka is a TPI (Titleist Performance Institute) Level 3 Golf Teaching Professional and Junior Coach.

In her lessons, Rebecka offers the latest technology with TrackMan, which is a great tool to help you understand and improve ball flight. TrackMan offers the simplest, most useful and most accurate feedback system available on the market. A self-proclaimed seminar junkie, Rebecka loves to learn and share her knowledge about golf, including golf fitness, mental game insights, and playing well on-course. She also hosts and coordinates golf retreats for women.

"I am excited to team up with Jessica to offer quality instruction and clinics at Oakmont. I like to work with players committed to improving their game and helping them understand ball flight using technology as a tool to improve faster."
