FOR THE SUMMER 2010 SEASON

- NEW! renovated clubhouse with diversified dining options
- NEW! introduction of the latest electric golf cart technology
  - Pole Creek Golf Club opens Saturday, May 15, 2010

Tabernash, Colo. (April 29, 2010) – Pole Creek Golf Club, a convenient and scenic drive from Denver, through Winter Park, to the small mountain town of Tabernash, Colo., is known for its 27 holes of classic mountain golf and breathtaking views. Pole Creek introduces new additions and improvements for the summer 2010 season. Opening Saturday, May 15, 2010, the newly renovated 12,000 square foot clubhouse features traditional rustic mountain décor, an open floor plan, and the best views in the valley of the Rocky Mountains and Continental Divide. The new clubhouse offers a full service restaurant, fully stocked golf shop, and is the perfect location to host your golf tournament, group outing, corporate party, reception, and special event.

The new Pole Creek Clubhouse features hearty and delicious Colorado cuisine at the Bistro 28 restaurant. New this summer, Bistro 28 will offer Friday night fish fry, Saturday evening prime rib special, affordable burger and beer deals, and an authentic Colorado smoked meat and barbeque station on the sunny clubhouse deck.

Whether you are an avid golfer toasting a great day at the 19th hole, or simply wanting to take in the beautiful Colorado scenery, Bistro 28 at Pole Creek Golf Club offers the most spectacular views in the Fraser Valley, delicious and authentic dining options, and a relaxing way to experience Colorado.

About Pole Creek Golf Club

The only mountain golf course in Colorado offering 27 holes of diverse and stunningly beautiful fairways on three distinct courses; The Ranch, The Meadow and The Ridge. Pole Creek's design was conceived by Denis Griffiths, who incorporated existing lodgepole pine, valley meadows, sagebrush and a variety of water hazards including five lakes to create a versatile course appealing to a wide range of golfers.
