MEET OUR NEW CHEF: VANESSA BOWMAN

Chef Vanessa Bowman was born in the town of Secunda, South Africa. In 2007 she attended the South African International Hotel School earning certification in hospitality management. In 2009 Vanessa joined the Ritz Carlton Beach Resort of Naples as an international intern. She jokingly remembers not knowing the difference between arugula and thyme. Under the mentorship of Chef Dan Vargo, she was able to hone her skills in culinary arts. She later transferred to the Ritz Carlton Golf Resort where she executed high volume banquets, charity events, and restaurant outlet operations with credit to Chef Aaron Pryear. In 2017 she joined Executive Chef Ryan Daniels and the team of Fiddlesticks country club. As the Cabana chef, she brought a renewed excitement in dining at the club. She looks forward to sharing her international flavors and passion for cooking and hospitality with the Captain's Club. Please join us on Saturday, October 12th to welcome Vanessa!
