Since 1971, Hopelink has provided programs for people experiencing poverty, immigrants and refugees, and people with disabilities in north and east King County, while its Transportation programs services the entire county and into Snohomish County. The agency's programs work in tandem to fill gaps, supporting each family or individual's unique needs as they gain stability and build skills to exit poverty. Hopelink's mission is to promote self-sufficiency for all members of our community to help people make a lasting change.

With service centers in Redmond, Bellevue, Kirkland, Shoreline, and Sno-Valley (Carnation), Hopelink is the largest nonprofit organization in the area. They provide a network of critical social services including Housing, Food Assistance, Financial Assistance, Adult Education, Energy Assistance, Financial Capabilities, Family Development, and Transportation.
