GOLFERS "IN THE KNOW" ABOUT GOLF IN SOUTHERN OREGON ARE PRIVY TO THE FACT THAT CENTENNIAL GOLF CLUB IN MEDFORD IS A MUST-PLAY THAT DOESN'T DISAPPOINT.

Centennial burst onto the Rogue Valley golf scene in May of 2006, boasting a spectacular 7,309-yard, par-72 layout, designed by two-time PGA Tour winner and 1977 U.S. Amateur Champion, John Fought. The golf course at Centennial was designed in the classic Donald Ross-style and takes full advantage of the spectacular views of the Rogue Valley and the surrounding mountains.

At press time, Centennial Golf Club was ranked fifth in GolfWorld's as yet completed Readers Choice Awards in the "Public – overall value" category with a 9.15 score out of 10, ahead of such notables as Harding Park in San Francisco and Hiddenbrooke in Vallejo, Calif. and only slightly behind the 9.46 score posted by 2009 U.S. Open site, Bethpage Black in New York. And while it remains to be seen how the final results of GolfWorld's poll will turn out, golfers in the region have already come to their own conclusion, putting the Centennial golf experience on a pedestal when they voted the layout as the No. 1 Best Golf Course in the region in the Medford Mail Tribune.

Located on the former site of a historic pear orchard more than 100 years old, Centennial Golf Club is an affiliate of Medford-based Pacific Retirement Services, Inc. (PRS), and is located adjacent to another PRS affiliate, Rogue Valley Manor. The Rogue Valley Manor is the West Coast's premier Continuing Care Retirement Community (CCRC) and has received national recognition for its programs and services to active seniors.

Other amenities at Centennial include an expansive practice facility and "The Pavilion" clubhouse that is home to the popular Centennial Grille. Centennial Golf Club is managed by industry leader, Scottsdale-based OB Sports (the same management group that runs Tetherow in Bend and Langdon Farms in Aurora).

OB Sports also manages the Manor's public 9-hole Quail Point Golf Course. Commonly referred to as "The Best-Conditioned 9-Hole Course in Medford," Quail Point is known for its fun-filled layout, mountain vistas, picturesque ponds, rolling tree-lined fairways and family-oriented setting, all at an exceptional value. Coming this September will be a new family-friendly putting course as well – which may also be a good place to settle any final bets.

Both Centennial and Quail Point are located just minutes off I-5, in the heart of Medford, and in the heart of your next golf trip.
