Dear Supporter of Amateur Golf,

As you may be aware, the Baltimore Municipal Golf Corporation has been sponsoring competitive amateur golf events since its inception in 1985. During the past several years, due to budgetary constraints, the number of events has been reduced. These events, which offered competitive opportunities for all golfers, have been missed by those who participated.

I am pleased to announce we will once again be expanding the competitive playing opportunities for Classic 5 Golfers in 2015. While we have taken steps to lessen the cost of hosting the events, we are also seeking sponsors to not only improve the overall quality, but to keep entry fees as reasonable as possible

We are going to be conducting at least seven events in 2015, which will involve play at every Classic 5 golf course. We will be mixing the old popular familiar formats with exciting new ones. Golf Genius software will be used to conduct the events, allowing real-time electronic scoring. The Tournament Series will have its own social media platform allowing participants access to all pairings, event summaries, player-of-the-year statistics etc.

Sponsorship opportunities are as follows:

Investment = $250

Sponsor sign at one location for every 2015 Classic 5 Tournament Series Event.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Brian Meyer
