

2020 Eagle Hills Junior Golf Academy

The city of Papillion's Junior Golf Academy is designed to promote the game of golf through the development of junior golfers. This program is offered for kids who are new to the game or intermediate and is segmented into two Sessions. Session One is a two week class that takes place in June. Session Two starts in July and only runs one week.

Overview

Our Junior Golf Camp is the first stepping stone to a lifetime of golf. They are intended for both new and seasoned golfers who will be going into grades 1 thru 8. The junior golfers will learn SAFETY first! This camp will cover the basics: grip, stance, posture, proper etiquette, putting, short game, irons, woods and the rules of the game on the driving range and practice holes. We will also learn in further details, the fundamentals and why they are paramount to hitting the ball correctly and effectively. If you are thinking about playing on the high school team or just want to start up the game, this camp is for you!
