One entrant who picks the correct winner will win. If more than one entrant selects the correct winner, ties will be determined by the entrant who predicts closest to the winner's final score. If two or more entrants select the correct winner and final score, a blind draw will determine the contest winner.