"My wife and I have used the Hidden Creek Country Club for entertaining family and friends for many years including group lunches or dinners for my staff at work. It is particularly convenient for us living in Reston and supports casual lunches and group dinners, such as the eleven reservations we have for the Easter Dinner. We also had several receptions and dinners for guests of our granddaughter's wedding. These were especially convenient and most enjoyable. We plan to continue to use the Hidden Creek Country Club in the future for many personal and group events."

"So far, I've had my daughter's wedding and the Inaugural Hall of Fame Dinner at Hidden Creek. For each event, your staff has been as conscientious about the details and ambiance as I was as hostess. In each case, the success of the event was enhanced by the high quality of the food, the efficient service, and the personal attention the Club provided. 20 Reasons Why You Should Become A Hidden Creek Member

1. Convenient Location

We are conveniently located in northern Virginia, not far from Washington or Maryland. We are in Reston, Virginia, just two minutes north of the intersection of Reston Parkway and the Dulles Toll Road. Our easily accessible location translates into more golf and more fun at the club for you and your family!

2. Great Golf

At Hidden Creek you'll enjoy a classic layout that's always fun to play! Our thinker's course challenges you in every way possible while still providing the fun that's so lacking on many of the modern, monster courses. Our 18-Hole, par 71 championship golf course was designed by Ed Ault. Both accomplished golfers and beginners will find the layout of our bent grass course challenging and exciting.

The course may be short by modern standards, yet what it lacks in raw distance, it more than makes up for in cunning and guile. This is a thinker's golf course ... a tight classic layout that demands tremendous strategy, yet gives an equal chance to the long or short hitter who opts for the right position from which to attack each hole. Featuring four sets of tees, Hidden Creek is truly playable and enjoyable for players of every skill level from tour professionals to juniors.

3. Superb Conditioning

Our course is one of the finest groomed layouts in the greater Washington, D.C. area. The greens, fairways, and tees are immaculately conditioned. Hidden Creek is renowned for its meticulously landscaped trees and greens, where beautiful plants and flowers adorn each hole. Tall hardwood trees line the rolling fairways and provide a picturesque backdrop for every round of golf. Ault designed the course to thrill the golfer, while preserving the habitat and natural beauty of the area. Wooden bridges protect the delicate ecological balance of the creeks that come into play on nearly every hole.

4. World-Class Practice Facility

Members will have the opportunity to loosen up and get ready for their round on our indoor driving range. Our chipping and putting area has been recently updated to help you work on the part of your game that will save you the most strokes.

5. Speed of Play
