Award Winning

Voted 2010 Best Public Golf Course

Host of the 2011 & 2012
NCAA Regional Golf Championships

Home Course to University of Colorado Buffaloes

Colorado National Golf Club is the premier golf course on the Front Range. Playing at over 7,700 yards from the tips and with a slope and rating of 141/75.4, this par 72 layout is one of Colorado's best golf clubs. Backdrops include snow-capped mountains and rolling terrain creating breathtaking views from the course and the clubhouse. Offering five sets of tee boxes this Jay Morrish design offers playability for all skill levels. A 696 par 5, a drivable par 4, four of the state's best par 3's and exceptional elevation changes are a few of the highlights our tremendous course has to offer.

Voted as Course of the Year in 2010, Colorado National strives to create a membership atmosphere of exclusivity and privilege. With three different levels of individual or family membership, as well as options of paying annually or monthly, we are sure to meet every individual and family's needs. At Colorado National it will not cost you an arm and a leg to be a member of one of Colorado's best memberships.

RECIPROCAL PLAY AT THE FOX HILL CLUB

Colorado National is a semi-private club which consists of hosting public play and events. We also own and operate The Fox Hill Club in Longmont, which is a private club. Members at Colorado National have playing privileges at The Fox Hill Club. Fox Hill is a tree lined golf course built in 1972. It is the opposite of the links style Colorado National and brings a great value to your membership.
