

Campos finishes T18th at the Cowans Ford Open

Charlotte, NC (June 25, 2011) – At the completion of the eGolf Professional Tour - Cowans Ford Open event, local golf professional Rafael Campos finished tied in 18th place at 10-under-par, nine strokes behind leader Brendan Gielow, (-19). Campos started with two under par rounds included an opening round of 65 strokes (6-under), and a 66 (5-under) on Thursday to be in a tie for second place after the second day of the competition. A total of 13 birdies within the first 36 holes, were good to overcome only one bogey at each of the courses played during the 10th event of the 2011 season. Although Rafa finished his last two rounds 1-over-par, he managed to earn $2,467.25 for his effort.

After a short brake at home since he won two weeks ago the 2011 PRGA Championship at the Flamboyant Course at Palmas Athletic Club, Campos headed to Charlotte, NC in order to continue with his professional golf career and played his second event at the eGolf Tour. His name is listed among the various categories and/or statistics for the event.

Played over at the Par 71 Cowans Ford CC & the North Stone CC courses in North Carolina, this is a 72-hole event with a full-field among the scheduled of tournaments that the eGolf Professional Tour organizes within the Charlotte, NC area.
