

Campos wins 2011 Johnnie Walker Cup / Calvesbert earns Amateur Title

Humacao, PR (Sunday, June 12th) - With a final score of 280 strokes (8-under par), Rafael Campos won the professional division and Johnnie Walker Cup and the title of the overall best golfer in Puerto Rico during this year's PRGA Championships. Robert Paul Calvesbert (295) finished with a 1-under par 71 to take home the Amateur Champion title with a total of 295 strokes over amateur runner-up Erick Morales (296), while Paola

Robles once again won the Ladies Championship Flight at 236 over Patricia García (243).

Despite a 2-over par final round of 74 strokes, Rafa was able to hold the lead he built during the second round over first-round leader Morales and four-day contender and Professional Flight runner-up, Max Alverio (285); who also is the local professional at Palmas Athletic Club.

Campos shared the champion's title with family and friends who came to follow him and gave Thanks to his teams, who have been a big support during his first few months as golf professional. "I'm very happy to repeat as the Overall Champion of this Championship. Ever since turning professional just a few months ago it's been a lot of hard work, commitment and dedication as a touring pro", -he said at the Awards Presentation.

Sponsored by DIAGEO and presented by Johnnie Walker the event was hosted by Palmas Athletic Club and conducted by the Puerto Rico Golf Association welcomed over 90 players, including amateurs, professionals, mid-amateurs, seniors, super seniors and ladies from all around Puerto Rico and few international players who joined them in the field. CRISTALIA, Titleist, Coca-Cola and Powerade, as well as Cervercera de Puerto Rico and it's award winning beer MEDALLA were other important sponsors that gave their total support to the event.

Championship conditions on the golf course were achieved by Dave Rosek and his grounds crew, who never gave up despite the tough weather conditions that prevailed days before the tournament. The Staff at PAC, led by Golf Director Seth Bull and his assistant Juan Velazquez were key to a successful 4-day competition from all aspects of the operation.

Contested over the 7,000 yds Par 72 Flamboyan Course, the championship also awarded the following other prizes / titles;

Mid-Amateur Division:

Champion; Elvin Gonzalez, Jr. (306) / Runner-Up; Alfred Colón (307)

Senior Division:

Champion; Mario Carbia (235) / Runner-Up; Norman Tello (241)

Super-Senior Division:

Champion; Israel Ortiz (234) / Runner-Up; Susin Vélez (237)

First Flight:

Champion; Jonathan Rodriguez (166) / Runner-Up: Juan C. Alemañy (173)