

Patricia Garcia will play at the 2010 Duke of York YOUNG CHAMPIONS TROPHY

By becoming the low-score of the Girls 16-17 age group at this year's Caribbean

Amateur Junior Golf Championship, local player Patricia Garcia earned an opportunity in her golf career she will never forget.

Over the next few days, left handed golfer Patricia will join a number of other juvenile golfers from around the world at the 2010 Duke of York YOUNG CHAMPIONS TROPHY. Recently she was also named by the PRGA Selection Committee into the Women's Team that will represent Puerto Rico at the 2010 World Amateur Team Championships.

Her recent accomplishments in golf and her performance at the Caribbean Championships has paid-off big time, as she will be among the best amateur of around the world at the WATC, organized by the IGF and hosted by the AAG in Buenos Aires, Argentina October 20 th - 23rd.

Contested at the Royal St. George Golf Club in Kent , England, the DOY YCT is a unique, international 54 hole stroke play golf tournament for boys and girls who are either the current holders of their Under 18 National Championship or have won some other major golfing event in the preceding year.

Alongside García will be Laura Díaz, a former member of the PRGA Staff and who is traveling as her chaperone and representative of the association and golf in the region. Laura, who was also a member of PRGA Junior Golf Program and various golf teams now attends the University of Georgia and is pursuing a master in the SPORTS MARKETING  and administration. She often returns to Puerto Rico and participates as one of the chairman for the volunteers of Puerto Rico Open.

To read more information about the event, please click HERE.