

Toyota Junior World Golf Cup

Diana Velez, Valeria Pacheco and Natalia Rivera are the three girls representing us at the 2016 Toyota World Junior Qualifier hosted by Trinidad & Tobago. It's a three day tournament that starts today in which the best two scores per day will count and the winning team will qualify to The 2016 Toyota Junior Golf World Cup at Japan. Good luck girls!

After the second round of the 2016 Toyota World Junior Qualifier, Diana Velez and Valeria Pacheco repeated again their score from yesterday shooting (76) and (79) respectively. They are currently in 2nd place overall behind Mexico. The last round is schedule to start tomorrow at 8:00 am. Good luck girls!

After the last round at the 2016 Toyota World Junior Qualifier, the two best scores for Puerto Rico were Valeria Pacheco (77) and Diana Velez (80). The girls ended the tournament in 2nd place behind Mexico. Despite not qualifying, the PRGA wants to congratulate the girls on putting all their effort and commitment in the tournament. Thanks to Sasha (coach), Valeria, Diana and Natalia on excellent representation!

