Fall Classic Info

Begin your weekend with some “Classic Education” with renowned turf scientist and researcher Dr. Bert McCarty from Clemson University. We are proud to have him to provide the latest industry updates on products and performance. After checking into the beautifully renovated Omni Resort and take stroll on the beach or enjoy a poolside beverage. We will be featuring a “Welcome Reception and Amelia Island Shrimp Boil Dinner” will start at 5:30 pm on the Ocean View Terrace overlooking the 6th Green and the Atlantic Ocean. This will surely be a fun evening which will include a special presentation for the long awaited Butch Singo Award. You don't want to miss this and please bring your spouse and family. Saturday kicks off at 7:30 am with registration at the Amelia Links Clubhouse. The format will be a 4-man blind draw with individual stroke play with handicaps. The Crash Cup Challenge is open to all superintendents playing in the event and will be awarded to the low gross winner. The winner also qualifies for the 5th major spot on the FGCSA State Chapter Team that will compete at the GCSAA National Championship in Orlando in 2014. We will be playing Dye's Oak Marsh Course for the Classic this year. We will have the awards lunch (cookout) immediately following golf at the clubhouse on the Marsh View deck. Trophy presentations and prizes will be awarded. It is sure to be a weekend you will never forget and will not want to miss in the future. We are looking forward to seeing you there.

The Edward L “Crash” Hall Championship Cup

In memory of Edward L. “Crash” Hall, we present this award in his honor. Crash was instrumental in forming the NFGCSA and was the association's first President in 1974. He had various golf course jobs after retiring from the Navy and was asked to construct a 9 hole golf course along the St John's River at Jacksonville University. He and his wife Mary loved golf and Crash played up until he was 90. He was shooting his age for 15 years.

Dwight “Butch” Singo Award

Butch was a golf course superintendent, a salesman, a family man, a spiritual man and a man who passed away well before his time. He started his sales career working for Par Ex and most remember him as a Harrell's top salesman. He also served on the board of the North Florida chapter for many years setting up meeting sites, education and lending a voice of experience and knowledge. As a salesman he was as professional as they come and was welcomed by all superintendents and admired by his peers. We all loved and miss Butch very much. For these reasons we choose to name this prestigious award after Butch Singo and will present it annually to one of our sales people, past or present, who exemplify the qualities that Butch stood for in serving the golf course superintendents of the North Florida Chapter.
