

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

- The University of Arizona Agricultural and Resource Economics Department in collaboration with Cactus & Pine GCSA will provide an estimate of the contribution of the golf industry to the state economy in terms of economic activity and jobs.
- The project will conduct an online survey of all golf facilities in Arizona.
The survey is divided into 3 sections, to be answered by the General Manager, the Lead Superintendent, and the Lead Golf Professional at each facility.
- Survey topics include all golf facility operations: clubhouse, pro shop, agronomy and maintenance; environmental and water management strategies; charitable giving, tournaments, and activities
