

North York Winter Tennis Club LADIES TEAM TRYOUT

LEVEL OF PLAY GUIDE - 2022/23

For the past few years, the tryouts have had some rules in place to serve as a guide in assisting you in terms of the tryout session(s) you attend. These guidelines were implemented as a result of a survey conducted in 2015/16 and have proven to make the tryouts more of a level playing field and of a more competitive nature.

Please review.....

IF you played on the A2 team in season 2022/23

You can try out for an A team or for the Invitational Team

IF you played on the B1 team in season 2022/23

You can try out for B or an A team

IF you played on the B2 team in season 2022/23

You can try out for a B team

IF you played on the C1 team in season 2022/23

You can try out for C or B team

IF you played for a C2 team in season 2022/23

You can try out for a C team.

New players to NYWTC may be evaluated based on previous playing history at other clubs and/or by a Club Pro. Any questions please contact Anne at nytaladies@gmail.com

NOTES about trying out for more than one team:

- (i) IF you try out for a team higher than C
And you make the team,
You cannot change your mind and try out for a lower level
(E.g. IF you made the A2 team, you cannot try out for B or C)
- (ii) IF you try out for a team (based on your appropriate level as shown above)
And you do not make the team,
You CAN try out for a level lower than you originally tried out for (E.g. IF you tried out for A2 and didn't make it, you can try out for B)
