

NY Winter Tennis Club Rules

For the benefit of all members, guests and public players we would like everyone to abide by the following rules:

Coaching No outside coaching allowed.

- Only NY Winter Tennis Club authorized coaches permitted to give lessons.

Change-over

- Arrive at least five minutes before your scheduled time. Change-over is on the hour.
- The buzzer will ring 2 minutes prior to the hour. This tells you your hour is almost over.
- The buzzer will ring again on the hour. This tells you that your hour is over and it is time to stop playing and leave the court. Go to the bench, pick up your belongings and leave the court promptly.
- Players who remain on court more than Fifteen minutes past their allotted court time are subject to an additional charge of one hour court time.
- Do not change your clothes on court; use the clubhouse change rooms.

On Court

- Three balls per court rule in effect except during approved lessons.
- No spitting on the premises.
- Please set your cell phone to vibrate or silent while on court. Please keep cell phone use to a minimum.
- No swearing or loud outbursts.
- No chewing gum on the courts.
- Retrieve and return balls back only after play has ended. Never send balls back while play is in progress.
- A Maximum of 4 Players allowed on Court - Absolutely no spectators allowed on the courts during member or public bookings.

In the clubhouse

- Please change in the change rooms. Do not use the kitchen sink for personal grooming.

Memberships

- Membership is not transferable. Refunds requested in writing PRIOR to opening day are less a $10 handling fee. Subsequent requests up to November 30 are pro rata refunds less $10 handling fee. No refunds after November 30.
- Courts once booked must be paid for unless placed on sale and sold. This includes PCT courts.
- Guest visits are unlimited on weekday's 7-9 a.m. and 10pm to Midnight. At other times, limit is four visits per guest. If requested, a guest must produce some form of identification. Abuse of guest procedure may result in membership suspension.
