WORLD SENIOR GOLF FEDERATION, INC.

IN APPRECIATION

Mrs. Kay Copelin French cannot be thanked enough for her friendship and support of World Senior Golf. She carries on the legacy of her late husband, Adrian J. French, and she and her family present the Adrian J. French trophy to the 75 & Over Medalist each year. Her generous support insures that the tournament can keep the entry fee affordable while providing memorable activities for all attendees and exceptional functions for the ladies. We welcome and look forward to her attendance and that of members of her family at the tournament each year. The Board, the participants and their spouses thank her for her support, her attendance, and her friendship.

2021 NEW PRESIDENT TAKES OVER

President Stephen M. Reid organized and presided over eleven World Senior Golf Championships, President's Medal Play Competitions and International Team Tournaments. His twelve-year tenure marks him as the longest serving President in the sixty-two year history of the organization. He made players from all over the world feel welcome and special each and every year of his presidency that spanned from August, 2009 through August, 2021. He led with a firm hand, a strong sense of fairness, a wonderful sense of humor, an inclusive style and a Texas drawl. But, at the age of eighty-four, he felt it was time to pass the torch to the next president and at the final awards dinner, Mr. Reid passed the baton on to Steve Yelton, the new President. Mr. Yelton presented Mr. Reid with the Champions red coat and special crest along with a custom golf bag dropped shipped to his home. Thank you to Mr. Reid for his years of service and congratulations to Mr. Yelton.

FRANCIS H.I. BROWN TROPHY

Eight countries attended and five teams participated in the 58th Annual World Senior International Team Tournament. Uruguay posted a team net 36-hole score of 453 to win the coveted Francis H.I. Brown Trophy. The Japanese trophy for the runners-up was awarded to the team from Bermuda with a score of 457.

Awarded each year to the team with the low net score in the International Team matches, the trophy is named for its donor, the late Francis H.I. Brown. A founder of the World Senior Golf Federation, Brown served as its chairman as well as chairman of the International Team matches.

The William Thayer Tutt Trophy, which is awarded each year during the International Team Tournament to the team with the low gross score for 36 holes, was presented to the team from the United States for a score of 469. Runner-up honors and the Brazil Trophy went to the team from Panama with a score of 487. Each country has the ability to have two teams compete, composed from three to five men each... one in the gross division and one in the net division. Country captains must declare the team members and who is competing for gross and/or for net. The lowest 3 scores of the team are used to compute the team score. These two days of stroke play also serve as qualifying for the Maytag Championship flight.

Awarded to the team with the low gross score in the International Team Matches, the trophy is a gift to the Federation from Adrian J. French, Chairman Emeritus, World Senior Golf Federation. It was named for the late William Thayer Tutt, co-founder and President Emeritus of the World Senior Golf Federation.

ADRIAN J. FRENCH TROPHY

Howard French, Gary Bowen, and Mrs. Kay French.

Gary Bowen, USA, received his third Adrian J. French trophy with a 36-hole score of 160. This trophy is awarded to the player 75 and over for the low 36-hole gross score during the President's Medal Competition. Bowen, age 79, also shot better than his age, 78, on the second day of qualifying.

The Adrian J. French Trophy was donated to the World Senior Golf Federation by Kay French in honor of her husband's 90th birthday. The Trophy is presented to the Over 75 Medalist.

MAYTAG CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHY

MAYTAG CHAMPIONSHIP WINNER

In a year when many countries are still shutdown due to a worldwide pandemic, everyone who made the effort to attend the 61st Annual World Senior Golf Championships was greatly appreciated. After 2020, when no Championships were held due to the pandemic, it was great to get together and see the many friends who could make the journey. The tournament was held August 26-September 3, 2021 at the Silverado Resort and Spa in Napa, California, on their two courses, North and South. Kevin Tynes of Panama won the coveted Maytag Trophy. Tynes entered the Championship bracket seeded fourth after posting a two-day qualifying score of 159. His first match found him facing Steve Reid II, Granbury, Texas, whom he defeated 4 & 3. He got by Gary Bowen, Omaha, Nebraska, 3 & 2, who shot his age on the final day of qualifying as well as taking home the French trophy as the senior medalist. This left him to face tournament medalist, Darrell Williams, Hudson Oaks, Texas, in the semi-finals where he pulled out a 2 up victory to advance to the finals. After a tough match, Tynes managed a 2 up victory over Shoichi Satoh, Japan, in the finals. Satoh birdied two of his first three holes and they were all square through ten holes. Mr. Tynes managed to be dormie after the 15th before Mr. Satoh extended the match by making a long putt on 16 and winning 17, taking the match to the final hole.

Satoh defeated Jack Harless, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, 6 & 4, and Tom Kidd, Daytona Beach, Florida, 1 up, on his way to the semi-finals. Kris Cuello, Panama, fell 7 & 6 in the semi-finals.

Third place honors went to Kris Cuello, Panama, when Darrell Williams, USA, had to forfeit due to illness on the final day of the tournament.

Steve Yelton, Executive Council, (center) presents to Joy Williams (left), who accepts the Maytag Championship Semi-Finalist award for her husband, Darrell Williams, Hudson Oaks, Texas, USA and to Third Place Winner, Kris Cuello, Panama, (right).

The Maytag Bowl, awarded to each World Senior Golf champion since the Tournament's inception in 1960, is named in honor of the late L.B. Maytag, co-founder of the tournament and General Chairman for several years. He was a major figure in the world of golf and made many important contributions to the World Senior Golf Championships.

DAVID COPELIN (USA)

David Copelin, Executive Vice President of World Senior Golf, passed away on July 3, 2020, at his home in Marco Island, Florida, USA at the age of 65.
