Guest Privileges

Guest privileges may be extended under the rules established by the Club from time to time. Although it is the intention of the Club to accommodate guests without inconvenience to the members, the Club reserves the right to limit the number of guests a member may have at the Club on any given day or over the course of a membership year and the number of times a particular guest may use the Club Facilities in any given membership year. The Club shall establish from time to time the rate of the daily guest fees, charges and the rules and regulations for use of the Club Facilities by guests. A particular guest may not use the tennis courts, pool, fitness center, fishing access on the private section of the Rio Grande River and the golf course more than five times per year per amenity, regardless of whether the guest is sponsored by more than one member, unless approved by the General Manager. Guest privileges may be denied, withdrawn or revoked at any time for reasons considered sufficient by the Club, in its sole and absolute discretion. All guests shall be day guests.

Day Guests

1. The Club reserves the right to determine from time to time the maximum number of times a particular day guest may use the Club Facilities as a guest of a member during each membership year.
2. A particular individual using the Club Facilities as a guest must be registered by the sponsoring member with the Club. The Club reserves the right to require identification by each guest. Guests will be charged guest fees for use of the Club Facilities as determined from time to time by the Club.

3. Guests will be entitled to use the Club Facilities only in accordance with the privileges of the membership of the sponsoring member upon payment of daily fees.
4. Members may sponsor up to four guests per day to use the golf course subject to the appropriate daily fees – sponsored groups greater than four must have prior approval from the Club General Manager.
5. Golf guests sponsored on a gratis golf day will not receive a rain check.
6. Guest charges for any services not paid for in cash will be charged against the sponsoring member's Club account.
7. Guest privileges may be limited by the Club, from time to time, in the sole and absolute discretion of the Club. Notice of such limitation will be given by the Club.
8. The sponsoring member shall be responsible for all charges incurred by the guest(s). The sponsoring member is also responsible for the conduct of a guest while at the Club. If the manner, deportment or appearance of any guest is deemed to be unsatisfactory, the sponsoring member shall, at the request of the Club, cause such guest to leave the premises of the Club.

The Club shall be the sole judge of what constitutes improper conduct, but improper conduct will include, without limitation: (i) failing to meet eligibility for membership, (ii) submitting false information on the Membership Agreement, (iii) allowing his or her membership card to be used by another person, (iv) failing to pay any amount owed to the Club in a proper and timely manner, (v) failing to abide by the rules and regulations as set forth herein and as established by the Club from time to time, (vi) abusing Club personnel or employees, or (vii) acting in a manner incompatible with the standard of conduct of the existing membership or which would likely injure the reputation of the members or the Club.
2. Any member accused of improper conduct shall be notified of the Club's proposed disciplinary action and shall be given an opportunity to be heard by the Club to show cause why he or she should not be disciplined. If such member desires to be heard, the Club shall set a time and date (not less than ten days thereafter) for a hearing. While such complaint is being considered by the Club, the member shall enjoy the privileges of the Club. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Club may, without notice and without a hearing, immediately suspend some or all privileges associated with a membership and/or, terminate a member for improper conduct or failure to pay in a proper and timely manner dues, fees or any other amounts owed to the Club.
3. The Club may restrict or suspend some or all of a member's, family member's and/or guest's Club privileges. If the Club determines that a member's conduct or the conduct of his or her family or guest is improper, the Club may terminate the membership, suspend or restrict the member's membership privileges, or restrict the use privileges of the member's family or guest whose conduct was improper. No member may on account of any restriction or suspension be entitled to any refund of any membership deposit, dues or any other fees. During the restriction or suspension, dues and other charges shall continue to accrue and shall be paid in full prior to reinstatement as a member in good standing.

4. Any member who has been terminated for improper conduct shall forfeit all membership rights and privileges to the club.

Resignation of Membership

1. A member may resign membership in the Club by delivering written notice of resignation to the Club's Membership Office. 2. It is customary for the Club to send a letter providing an opportunity for members to contribute a suggested contribution to a Holiday Fund for all Club employees. Payment of such contribution will be voluntary and will be included on the contributing member's November bill. This Holiday Fund provides the membership with an opportunity to show appreciation to Club employees during the holiday season. Club management shall be responsible for the distribution of these funds.

If a member fails to pay any Club account within 30 days of when it is first billed, the Club shall have the right to suspend membership privileges in the Club at any time until the delinquent account is paid in full. Continued delinquency for a period of 60 days from the date a Club account is first billed or repeated incidents of delinquency by a member may result in termination of membership in the Club.

6. If payment in full, including any reinstatement fees owed by a member, is received prior to the Club's terminating membership, the member making payment shall be reinstated as a member in good standing.
7. If the Club account of any member is delinquent, the Club may at its option take whatever action it deems necessary to effect collection. If the Club commences any legal action to collect any amount owed by any member or to enforce any other liability of any member to the Club, and if judgment is obtained by the Club, the member shall also be liable for all costs and expenses of such legal action and reasonable attorneys' fees, including any fees required in connection with appellate proceedings.

In the absence of an address on file at the Membership Office, any Club mailing may, with the same effect described above, be addressed as the Club Manager may think is most likely to cause its prompt delivery.

Golf Course Etiquette

Persons using the golf course should do their part to make a round of golf at Rio Grande Club & Resort a pleasant experience for everyone. Here are a few suggestions:

1. Do not waste time. Anticipate the club or clubs you may need and go directly to your ball. Always be near your ball to play promptly when it is your turn. If a player is delayed in making his shot, it would be courteous for the player to indicate to another player to play, which should not be deemed playing out of turn.
2. The time required to hole out on and around the green is a chief cause of slow play. Study and clear the line of your putt while others are doing the same. Be ready to putt when it is your turn.
3. When approaching a green, park your golf cart on the cart path on the best direct line to the next tee. This can save about one-half hour per round. Never leave the golf cart in front of the green where you will have to go back to get it, while the following players wait for you to get out of the way.
4. When play of a hole is completed, leave the green promptly and proceed to the next tee without delay. Do the scoring for the completed hole while others in your group are playing from the next tee.
5. If you are not holding your place on the course, allow the players behind to play through. Do the same if you stop to search for a lost ball.
6. The Golf Rangers shall report slow play and all breaches of golf etiquette to the Golf Professional.
