Tripp Davis and Associates Showcasing Projects at 2018 Golf Industry Show -Meet Tripp at Booth #2058-

Norman, OK (January 31, 2018)— Golf course architecture firm Tripp Davis and Associates (TDA) is exhibiting at the 2018 Golf Industry Show at the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center, San Antonio, Texas, from February 7-8. Meet Tripp to learn about his recent projects including: Northwood Club (Dallas, TX), The University of Oklahoma Jimmie Austin Golf Course (Norman, OK), Oak Hills Country Club (San Antonio, TX), Trilogy Club at Ocala Preserve (Ocala, FL) and others.

The firm over the past few years has done new courses around the world, with the primary focus in the U.S. being renovation and historic restoration for which TDA is considered among the best in the country.

“For us, 2017 was an active and exciting year and I am really looking forward to what we will get to experience in 2018,” said Davis. “From the new course Justin Leonard and I did, Old American, which is hosting the LPGA Tour in Dallas; to the reopening of Northwood and Oak Hills, two interesting renovation/restoration projects we have just completed; to starting to plan for a number of really exciting projects in the next few years.

Davis will be sharing his experiences at the Golf Industry Show as a panelist for the American Society of Golf Course Architects Forum: “Understanding Strategic Design-A Guide for Better Golf Course Management,” on February 6 at 1 p.m. He also is a speaker for the Learning Tour Bladerunner Farms: Zoysia & The Future of Golf Seminar also on Tuesday, February 6 at 3 p.m., which will take place at the recently renovated Oak Hills Country Club in San Antonio. Davis and Riley Maxey, Oak Hills Country Club Golf Course Superintendent, will tour attendees around the property. The club officially reopens this spring.
