REDS

Bellacosa Cabernet $45
Dark cherry with aroma notes of plums, dried cherries, and toasted hazelnuts. The mouthfeel is round and juicy with rich fruit flavors of huckleberry and a dried cherry sweetness fade into the warm spicy finish with hints of blackberry.

Cakebread Cabernet Sauvignon, California $100
Black currant, blackberry, and boysenberry, joined by seductive chocolate and roast coffee scents. Dark berry and cassis flavors balanced by supple, well knit tannins and a long flavorful finish with savory mocha.

Chateau St. Jean Cinq Cepages, California $110
A Sonoma benchmark since 1990, blended to honor 5 traditional grape varieties, cabernet sauvignon, merlot, cabernet franc, malbec and petit verdot.

Silver Oak Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa, California $150
Bright aromas of black cherry, dark chocolate, black tea, allspice and ginger. Offering a full-bodied round, balanced mid-palate redolent of cherry preserves, brown sugar and caramel and an extremely long finish of savory ripe fruit.

Caymus Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa, California $115
The aromatics are layered dark fruits, especially black currant and plums that follow through to the richly textured flavors. Subtle toasted oak supported by firm tannins and excellent acidity. The wine has a long finish.

Opus One, California $250
Bordeaux-like in its structure and balance, showing cedary oak, dusty berry, dried currant and mineral, with hints of herb and sage. The flavors firm up on the finish, and this is rich and intense without being heavy. The blend consist of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Petit Verdot, Cabernet Franc and Malbec.
